Le Rêve, Lobster & Legendary Ladies: An Afternoon with the Women Shaping Napa Valley Wine

Behind many of Napa Valley's most celebrated wines are extraordinary women whose leadership, vision, and craftsmanship have become part of the region's legacy.

Domaine Carneros' coveted Le Rêve & Lobster events are among Napa Valley's most sought-after dining experiences, drawing waitlists and devoted fans year after year. Named for the French word for "dream," Le Rêve is also Domaine Carneros' acclaimed tête de cuvée—the winery's most celebrated sparkling wine—which guests will enjoy during lunch and dream about long after the afternoon ends.

For this exclusive lot, PCHFNV Board Member Remi Cohen has assembled an extraordinary group of women whose talent, vision, and leadership are shaping the future of Napa Valley wine. Enjoy a beautifully curated meal paired with wines from each of their acclaimed wineries while sharing candid conversation, insider stories, and unique perspectives from some of the wine industry's most accomplished leaders. And while lobster may be part of the experience, guests who prefer an alternative can rest easy—we've got you covered.

Adding to the magic, acclaimed violinist and Festival Napa Valley Executive Producer Sienna Peck will provide a live musical performance, creating a one-of-a-kind afternoon where wine, music, and inspiration come together.

The Legendary Ladies

Remi Cohen - CEO of Domaine Carneros, Remi continues the winery's tradition of visionary female leadership. Her distinguished career spans some of Napa Valley's most respected estates, including Merryvale and Cliff Lede Vineyards.

Helen Keplinger - Founder of Keplinger Wines, Helen is one of Napa Valley's most acclaimed winemakers, known for her work with renowned vineyards including Grace Family, Bryant Family, and Kenzo Estate.

Rebekah Wineburg - Winemaker at Quintessa and co-founder of Post & Vine, Rebekah is celebrated for crafting wines that express both place and purpose while helping define modern Napa Valley winemaking.

Sienna Peck - An internationally recognized violinist, producer, and creative leader, Sienna has performed with world-renowned artists.

More than a lunch, this is a rare opportunity to spend an afternoon with four women whose influence, artistry, and leadership have left a lasting mark on Napa Valley—an experience few will ever enjoy.
