A Private Immersion of Wellness and Wine at Historic Bella Oaks Estate

This thoughtfully curated half-day experience invites guests into the world of Bella Oaks and Wheeler Farms—where wellness, art, and wine converge across two of Napa Valley's most distinctive estates.

To begin, enjoy a restorative morning at Bella Oaks, a new wine estate four decades in the making. One of Napa Valley's most historic vineyards, the Rutherford property has been reimagined under the stewardship and vision of Suzanne Deal Booth. Its sense of place extends beyond the vine.

Your experience opens with a guided all-levels morning yoga session and sound bath set among the vines—an invitation to slow down and connect with the landscape that defines Bella Oaks. Guests will depart with a curated offering of estate-produced botanical products, extending the spirit of the morning beyond the visit.

From there, sip on a glass of single-origin Susurrus Sparkling Tea while you enjoy a rare and intimate tour of Suzanne Deal Booth's private art collection, featuring site-specific works by Yayoi Kusama, Robert Irwin, Bosco Sodi, and Joel Shapiro. The experience continues with a tasting of current and library releases, showcasing how Deal Booth and winemaker Nigel Kinsman have preserved the vineyard's legacy of producing classic, elegant, and ageworthy single vineyard cabernet sauvignon.

Following your time at Bella Oaks, travel 10 minutes north to St. Helena for a visit to Wheeler Farms. A tour of the bucolic property—exploring fruit orchards, heritage chickens, bees, vegetable gardens, and organically certified vineyards—precedes a seasonal, multicourse lunch crafted by Executive Chef Tom Harder, highlighting ingredients from the property's organically farmed culinary gardens and paired with Bella Oaks wines.
