A Carne Asada Feast With Heart, Heritage and Llamas Family Wines

Lot 9

Private dinner with wines for up to 10

For its inaugural offering at Music and Memories, Llamas Family Wines is proud to offer an intimate carne asada dinner hosted at the home of founders/vintners Oscar and Lola Llamas.

Llamas Family Wines is a true Napa Valley gem, producing just under 500 cases annually. Oscar, originally from Jalisco, Mexico, brought his love of agriculture, food, and craftsmanship to Napa Valley, eventually pairing his talents in the vineyard and cellar with Lola's warmth, hospitality, and vision. Together, they built a family winery rooted in authenticity—where every bottle tells a deeply personal story of passion, perseverance, and pride in heritage, and every guest is treated like family.

This experience will be a celebration of culture, community, and connection. As Oscar and Lola's special guests, you will be welcomed into the Llamas family backyard for a relaxed yet unforgettable asada-style barbecue dinner. Oscar takes center stage at the grill, showcasing his legendary hospitality and culinary skills to create a traditional Jalisco-style carne asada feast prepared entirely from scratch: perfectly grilled skirt steak and chicken, cheese-stuffed Anaheim peppers, house-made rice and beans, and vibrant salsas—a menu of rich, soulful flavors that pair beautifully with the evening's wines.

Throughout the meal, you'll enjoy Cypress Ranch Sauvignon Blanc, an opulent Syrah and the enological highlight of the evening: a guided tasting through multiple vintages of cabernet sauvignon from Stagecoach Vineyard and Pritchard Hill. This rare opportunity offers an insider's look at how these powerful wines evolve over time, shared by the people who crafted them.

More than a wine dinner, this one-of-a-kind evening is an invitation to slow down, laugh, learn, and connect over great food and truly special wines.

NOTES: To be scheduled for a mutually agreeable date before September 2027. Please allow three to five weeks' advance notice to ensure a perfectly planned experience.
